Besides Iron Mike DiBiase, wrestling also lost Frank Scarpa and Gentleman Jim Hady in 1969.

Author Terry Robert Justice would like to dedicate this nostalgic look at 1969 to Buddy "Nature Boy" Rogers, whose comeback was a real thrill to the wrestling world.

New World Tag Champs

The (Judge) Crusher...

... and Dick the Bruiser

It took some mighty high bidding on the part of promoter Wally Karbo to land tonight's main event tag team match between the Crusher and the Bruiser and former champs Mitsu Arakawa and Mr. Moto.

After the Crusher and Bruiser took the title away from the Japanese pair in Chicago on Dec. 28, promoters all over the country started bidding for the rematch.

"Minneapolis deserves this bout. I've told fans all along that I would make sure a match of this importance was held right here," Karbo said.

There are other local tag teams waiting in the wings for the results of this one.

Larry Hennig and Lars Anderson want a crack at the winners, and the same applies for Frankie Laine and Red Lyons.

Probably the most concentration on the main event will come from the Vachone brothers, who long ago told Karbo they would come to town only if they could go after the tag championship.

The Vachones (Mad Dog and the Butcher) have demanded from Karbo that they meet tonight's champions.

KARBO'S KOLUMN

By WALLY KARBO

Minneapolis Wrestling Promoter

IT'S BEEN THREE WEEKS SINCE the Crusher and Bruiser defeated Mitsu Arakawa and Mr. Moto before a standing room only crowd in Chicago, but fans in that city are still buzzing about the match. I was there that night, and it certainly rates as one of the greatest I've ever watched. Chicago promoters wanted the rematch—as did a number of other promoters around the country—but my bid was the best, so its here in Minneapolis tonight. Marty O'Neill, who handled the commentary for our Saturday television show, told listeners and viewers last Saturday that this would be one of the greatest Minneapolis matches in history, and he's correct.

AFTER LOOKING OVER ALL THE candidates for Verne Gagne's title again, I'm even more convinced that Cowboy Bill Watts should probably be given the most serious consideration. Watts follows the rule book, is well liked by fans, and came here with the promise he would get a title chance if he would prove himself. Fans know that he's certainly done that. I'm still amazed how such a big guy can get around that ring like a cat.

MANY FIGURE LARS ANDERSON is too high on his own abilities when he claims there are few men around stronger than he—but Anderson certainly has a point. One of the promoters in the southeast part of the United States said he's never seen such a brute, and wondered if all Minnesota products were that powerful. I won't say Lars is THE strongest here, because I still remember some of the amazing feats of Igor, among others, but Anderson is a regular bull. Don't forget, when he was wrestling in other parts of the nation, he had to change his name, because the top men wouldn't go against him.

LIKE ANYONE ELSE, PAMPERO FIRPO likes the "smell" of money, so he has an added incentive tonight against Dr. X. I told Firpo he would get an extra bonus if he would take off Dr. X's mask—and the Wild Bull popped his eyes at the mention of the word. Firpo has been watching Dr. X in action the past few weeks, and he's confided in a few close friends that he definitely has found the masked man's weakness. His closing words when he signed the contract to meet Dr. X? "Don't forget that bonus."

JUST HAD A REPORT FROM THE west coast, where Harley Race is back home wrestling again, and he hasn't changed one bit. My informant says Race is up to his old tricks, and more than a few of the fans and promoters there are urging that he return to the Twin Cities. Race never was too keen about winter weather and snow, so I don't look for him to head this way again for some time-but you never know about that character.

PAMPERO FIRPO: 'CRIPPLE THE CRUSHER'

Firpo's Plea to Japs: Cripple Your Opponents

Don't be surprised if you see Pampero Firpo serving as an aide for the Japanese tag team in tonight's main event.

Firpo has practically begged Mitsu Arakawa and Mr. Moto to put the Crusher and the Bruiser out of action -- in any way possible.

"Crusher is a disgrace to the sport of professional wrestling," Firpos snorted. "He disregards every rule in the book, and should be banned from this town like I was."
Firm is diffill the professional to the book of the banned from the story is defined to the profession of the story in the story is the story of the story in the story in the story is the story of the story in the story in the story is the story of the story in the story of the

Firpo is still steaming about the match he had with the Crusher back on Dec. 14, claiming the referees cost him a win.

It was a series of mixed up events (detailed in the Dec. 28 issue of Sports Facts) that resulted in two referees consulting and reversing a decision—which gave the win to the Crusher.

"If doesn't take much to be a favorite of Wally Karbo and get the breaks around here. It looks like I came in on the wrong side of the fence," he shouted.

Both the Crusher and the Bruiser have asked Karbo to keep Firpo away from the ring in their tag team championship match tonight.

Vachones Demand Tonight's Winner in Championship Bout

THE DEADLY VACHONE BROS, TAG TEAM Paul the Butcher (front) and Mad Dog

ready made for the rugged Vachone brothers -- Mad Dog and the Butcher.

They appear in individual bouts tonight, but they are in town to look over the situation and quick-ly form a tag-team combination.

Tonight, world tag champs the Crusher and the Bruiser go against former champs Mitsu Arakawa and Mr. Moto, and no matter which team wins, the Vachones will be on hand to challenge the champs.

The Japanese team reigned astag champs for many months, but that all came to an end late in December in Chicago when the Bruiser and Crusher defeated the Japs.

Promoter Wally Karbo said the Vachones have demanded that they be booked against tonight's winners "I guess I'm somewhat obligated to do just that," Karbo said.

Before they agreed to come into town, I had to promise the Vachones a championship tag match. I told them they would be the next opponents for the winning team to-night."

Mad Dog said that's all the assurance he needed.

"With our ability, that will make us champs, because there is no doubt in our minds that we can beat any team alive.

"We'll watch at ringside tonight and study both teams, but it really isn't necessary because the Vachones can triumph over any oppo-

Other tag teams are well aware of the Vachone pair, Maurice (Mad Dog) and Paul (the Butcher) have been toppling opponents like ten pins all over the nation in recent months.

"You should hear what other promoters have to say about these guys," said matchmaker Bill Kuusisto. "I think we'll have to bolt the ring to the floor."

night against Pampero Firpo.

Another Win for Sammartino

What was billed as a match between Bruno Sammartino and Gorilla Monsoon turned out to be a tag-team affair. Only Sammartino was not supplied with a partner.

Before 1,591 fans at the Catholic Youth Center Tuesday night Sammartino was applying the finishing touches to Monsoon when Killer Kowalski, a participant in an earlier bout, came to Monsoon's rescue.

After the two "abused" Sammantino Referee Dick Woehrle disqualified Monsoon. Sammartino will get a chance to return the "favor" to Monroon and Kowalski in a tag-team match Feb. 11 at the CYC. Sammartino's partner will be Haystacks Calhoun.

In other matches Kowalski (270) defeated Ron Sanders (215) in 8:10: Baron Scicluna (265) and Victor Rivera (235) drew after 20 minutes, and Bob Harmon (230) won in 17 minutes on a disqualification over Bull Ramos (315).

In the tag-team Calhoun and Grecian Arion disposed of Albano and Savoldi i ntwo straight fails.

Lee-Gordman Win Tag Match

A wrestler from Hong Kong won last night's featured bout in the Coliseum for his tag team with a press - not of a shirt, of an opponent.

Hahn Lee flattened Paul Jones in the third and deciding fall to give the team of Lee-Black Gordman the decision over Jones-Nelson Royal.

In the semi-main before 845, George Cannon, who weighs 400 pounds, drew with Freddie Blassie. In a girls' match, Betty Nicolli beat Kay Noble. In t e opener, Hariey race whipped Medic No. 1.

Whipper Watson seemed well on his way to winning the main event in Sunday night's wrestling card at the Forum until the referee decided to take a peek around the arena.

During this cursory glance Watson, who had Al Costello pinned to the canvas, was flipped over by Costello's partners, Mighty Ursus and Tony Angelo, in the six-man finale. The official turned just in time to count Watson out.

Waison, partnered with Bulldog Brower and Dewey Robertson, won the first fall with his Canuck Commando hold while Costello pinned Robertson for the second fall.

In the semi-final Robertson and The Assassin wrestled to a 45-minute, three fall draw.

In the openers Brower and Ursus battled to a 20-minute draw and Eric The Red won his match when Dutch Momberg was disqualified.

Duke Loses To Valentine

Johnny Valentine maintained his grip on the top of Texas wrestling ladder with a savage win over Duke Keomuka in the final event at the Coliseum Friday night.

Koemuka took the first fall with a driving chop to Valentine's throat after 26:26 of non stop action that saw both men come close to scoring the win.

In the second fall Valentine took advantage of the breaks and punished the Hawaiian born Japanese with a series of brain busters as his foot was tangled in the ropes. Before referee Danny McShane could get the foot out Keomuka was knocked cold and easy prey for the pin.

The Duke was unable to answer the bell for the third fall.

Young Fred Curry won a moral victory in the semi when he was offered the third fall on a disqualification after Raschke had rammed his head into the time keeper's table and cut him badly. But young Fred refused.

Some two minutes later Raschke went over the top rope and when he was handed a disqualification he took it and headed for the dressing room.

Edouard Carpentier Beats The Avenger (Art Nielson)

mystery man, The Avenger.

Edouard Carpentier saw to that Saturday night - to the intense delight of the pro-Carpentier tans in the City Auditorium Arena turnout of

For the Flying Frenchman took two out of three falls from the masked man in the caged windup.

And, by the time Carpentier, Co-Referees Ernie Dusek and Tom Novak finally removed the mask it turned out to be Art Neilson of Atlanta, Ga., a onetime member of the world's chempionship tag team.

This bout was to be to a finish - with no disqualifications. And five minutes into the bout The Avenger had ripped the shirts off both Ernie and Tom; so the arbiters finished their chores naked from the belt line up.

Neilson won the first fall in

There's no mystery now to the | 8:05 with a press, but popular Frenchman took the next two at 13:05 and 20:55, each time with his "egg-beater" flip flop. Several fights broke out in the balcony at the windup. So The Avenger must have had a friend or two in the place.

Midwest tag team champs Big Bob Geigel and The Viking kept their crown in winning two out of three over Stan Pulaski and Chris "The Body" Tolas in the semiwindup.

Iron Mike DiBiase pinned Rene Goulet in 17:25 while Jack Pesek and newcomer Rudy Martin drew.

Next auditorium mat show: Saturday night, April 19.

Dillinger Boys Take Mat Kings -but Not Title

When are you a winner and not a winner?

The Dillinger boys of pro wrestling found out last night before 3084 Arena fans when they won the main event against the world tag team champion Love Brothers, but failed to take the title. Title rules do not allow championships to change hands through disqualification, which caused the third and deciding fall after 46 minutes and 7 seconds.

In the top single events Johnny Powers used his powers lock to subdue Angelo Poff and Hans Schmidt and opponent Moose Cholak were both disqualified for battling beyond the count of 20 outside the ring.

In preliminaries, Cal Pullins defeated Gene Dubois; Tony Puglisi stopped Ron Romano with his cobra hold; Mr. Clean defeated Joe Carr. and Dr. Death won another in quick order, using a back breaker at 4:05 to defeat Denver McVee.

Mat Feature Is Stalemate

In one of the most vicious battles ever seen in a Houston ring, Wahoo McDaniel and Johnny Valentine fought to a stalemate Friday night in the Sam Houston Coliseum.

The official decision was that both men were disqualified, but that did not describe the roaring action that saw eight wrestlers try to contain Wahoo as he went berserk.

Wahoo had lost the first fall in 12:46. But 2:23 later, Wahoo bad battered Valentine down to the canvas.

Bull Curry stole the show as he beat Buster Lloyd in just 24 seconds and challenged Valentine to get even for what Johnny did to his son, Curry Jr., last week.

Thunderbolt Patterson scored a two - straight - fall win over Alex Perez. Gary Hart scored an unpopular win over Reggi Parks; Dusty Rhodes beat Pedro Valdez and Bobby Duncum won his debut when he beat The Buildog.

Brothers Turn Aud Mat Show Into a Love-in

There was a double portion of Love but little peace Friday night as the pro wrestling season opened in Memorial Auditorium.

For 800 fans, the place was hip as Reggie and Hartford Love—a truly psychedelic brother tag-team—took two of three falls from ohnny Powers and Bobby Hunt in the main event.

Hartford flattened Hunt with a pile-driver for the first fall but Powers retaliated with a "Power-lock" success on Reggie to even the match. Then Reggie pinned Hunt with a body press for the third fall.

In the co-feature Moose Cholak pinned Wild Bill Terry in 7 minutes 43 seconds.

Buffalo's Whirlwind Woodie Johnson pinned Omaha's Al Schiller in 53 seconds with a body press. Mario Fraderoli and Frank Durso went to a 20-minute draw and North Tonawanda's 'Lil Abner Osborne defeated Jerry Dorsee with a monkey-flip in 5:37.

DORY FUNK

Funk Keeps Mat Crown

Dory Funk, world heavyweight wrestling champion, successfully defended his title by defeating Rip Kirby in a bruising match at Memorial Coliseum Tuesday night.

Each grappler earned a fall, Kirby taking the first with a series of elbow smashes and a body slam and Funk gaining the second with a suplex hold.

All even, the combatants ripped into each other, to the cheers of some 3,000 fans, and Kirby appeared headed for victory when he tossed the champ over the ropes.

At this point, Kirby's manager, Beauregarde, climbed onto the ring apron and started whispering to the Californian.

While they were huddling, Funk crawled back into the ring, drop-kicked Kirby and then pinned him to win the match.

In another crowd-pleasing bout, Lou Thesz, six-time world title-holder, and Indian Billy White Wolf grappled to a no-fall draw.

In other matches, Beauregarde took one fall from Bobby Nichols, John Tolas was disqualified in a scrap with The Crusher, Butcher Boy Brown and Dutch Savage wrestled to a no-fall draw with Buddy Marino and Johnny Kostas, Mac McFarland pinned Rick Renaldo and Tony Borne put Steve Bolas. on his back.

Whipper, Bulldog triumph

A disqualification paved the way to victory for Whipper Billy Watson and Dick (Buildog) Brower in the main event of Tuesday's wrestling card at the Forum.

Watson and Brower were declared winners over the Fabulous Kangaroos when their manager, Man Mountain Cannon, interfered from outside. IN the semi-final tag team bout, Chris and John Tolos took the rubber fall from Ivan Kalmikoff and the Mighty Igor while in the midget struggle, the Jamaica Kid won two out of three falls over Frenchy Lamont.

Mary Jane Mull and Patty Drake battled to a 10-minute stalemate after Murray Cummings won on a disqualification at 8.14 of his bout with Cannon.

NOTE:

As you can see, the midget bout scheduled for the Toronto card at the left never came off. It would have been quite difficult to since the scheduled wrestlers, Tiny Tim and Little Brutus, were one and the same person!

Gagne Defeats Watts to Keep Wrestling Title

Vern Gagne defeated Cowboy Bill Watts with a back body drop Monday night to retain his world heavyweight wrestling championship at the Auditorium Arena.

The decision came 24 minutes and 20 seconds into the match for the veteran campaigner.

In another key contest, Dr. X won a two-of-three fall decision from Billy (Red) Lyons when Lyons injured an eye in the third fall and couldn't continue

In three one-fall matches, Hard Boiled Haggerty defeated Bob Brunelle with a knee drop, Pepper Gomez downed Crazy Luke Graham with a body slam and Red Bastien defeated Blackjack Lanza on a disqualification when Lanza's manager entered the
